Frequently Asked Questions

- What is TPG paying for? TPG covers the cost of your room, activity, group meals, and beverages at the group meals. If you choose to purchase something outside of a group meal or activity, you will have to use personal funds for this. TPG will not reimburse meals, food, beverages, or alcohol outside of the hosted group program.
- Do I need to present a credit card at check-in? Yes. You will need to provide a card at check-in. Your card will only be charged if you purchase something outside of a hosted group event.
- What is the attire? Attire for this event is casual! Jeans, TPG gear, and tennis shoes are the way to go. We plan to spend happy hour and do most activities outside, so make sure to check the weather and bring layers. There will be time between the activities and dinner for you to freshen up and change, if you wish. Dinner is also casual. Bring something comfortable for the dance floor!
- When will I get my swag? You will receive your new TPG swag upon check in with your welcome bag and nametag. If you did not order swag, you will receive a TPG stadium scarf. If your swag does not fit or you would like additional items, you will be put on a waiting list to see if any of the limited quantity of extra items works for you. You can add yourself to this wait list at the check-in table.

- What about water? We ask you to bring your own water bottle and fill it at the various filling stations around the lodge.
- When can my guest join the program? If you are bringing a guest with you, they will be included in the program on Thursday, starting at happy hour at 5:00 PM. If you are attending the sales meeting on Wednesday or arriving early due to travel, please note your guests are not included in the program or meals on Wednesday. All guest charges outside of the included happy hour and dinner on Thursday will be on their own.

Sponsors

- We have 13 generous sponsors who are helping put on this event. If you meet a sponsor, please take the time to thank them for their participation!
- At Happy Hour on Thursday, some sponsors will have promotional tables set up. There will also be an activity to help sponsors get to know you.
